DACS Organised A One Day Peer Educator Training Workshop On RRC

12th Aug,2023 -

GIRLS VOLUNTEERS:1

BOYS VOLUNTEERS:1

LOCATION: Wadala W

It's wonderful initiatives one-day Peer Educator Training Workshop organized by DACS (Department of AIDS Control Services) on August 12, 2023, focused on RRC (presumably Red Ribbon Club or a similar program related to HIV/AIDS awareness). Peer education can be a powerful tool in spreading awareness and promoting positive behavior change within communities, especially when it comes to sensitive topics like HIV/AIDS. These workshops equipped individuals with the necessary knowledge and skills to effectively educate their peers about HIV prevention, testing, and stigma reduction. It's a commendable effort in the ongoing fight against HIV/AIDS.

Samvidhan Diwas In conference Hall

26th Nov,2023

GIRLS VOLUNTEERS:1

BOYS VOLUNTEERS:3

"Samvidhan Diwas" refers to Constitution Day, which is celebrated in India on November 26th each year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. Holding an event in the conference hall at LTP Camp on November 26th, 2023, was a fitting way to honor this important day in Indian history. The event included discussions, lectures, or activities focused on the significance of the Indian Constitution, the rights and duties of citizens, and the principles of democracy and governance. Celebrating Samvidhan Diwas helps reinforce the values enshrined in the Constitution and promotes civic awareness and participation.
